

GILMANTON HIGH SCHOOL

Alumni Spotlight

Graduate: Gwen Thompson Moore
Class of 1997

After High School: University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Bachelor's Degree, 2001, Major in Psychology, Minor in Family Studies; University of Oregon School of Law, Doctor of Jurisprudence, 2004

Career Highlights: Being appointed as presiding judge for the City of Bend, Oregon.

Other Areas of Accomplishment: Served as Deputy District Attorney for State of Oregon, currently Bend Municipal Court Judge and also a Partner at the Family Law Firm, Phillips & Moore, LLC, practicing collaborative family law and mediation. Member of Deschutes County Domestic Violence Council. Has served on the Board of the Central Oregon Humane Society, and as a member of the Oregon State Bar's Family Law Section.

Current Information: Married to Andrew Moore, Deputy District Attorney for Deschutes County and professor at Oregon State University. Gwen has an 11 year old step-daughter, Makenzie; and a rescue dog, Skylyn.

Strengths of Gilmanton High School: Small class sizes and teachers who truly cared.

Fond Memories: Band, FBLA and Spanish Club (especially our trip to Spain.)

Advice to Current Students:

“ You can accomplish anything you set your mind on through hard work, determination and grit. ”

Gwen was nominated for the GHS Alumni Spotlight by Julie Steiner Kacures