

GILMANTON HIGH SCHOOL

Alumni Spotlight

Graduate: Rachel Becker Kent
Class of 2002

After High School: University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Bachelor's Degree, Kinesiology; Chippewa Valley Technical College, Associates Degree: Physical Therapy. Currently a Physical Therapist Assistant at an outpatient clinic in Mondovi, Wisconsin.

Career Highlights: I played college basketball for UW-Eau Claire.

Other Areas of Accomplishment: Being a part of the Gilmanton High School 2001 state basketball team.

Current Information: I am married to Nick Kent. We live in Gilmanton and have 3 children, all girls. I am also the JV girls basketball coach at Gilmanton High School.

Strengths of Gilmanton High School: The small class sizes and the community support of the school and students. The ability to work 1-on-1 with a teacher if the extra help was needed.

Fond Memories: Being a part of the state basketball team.

Advice to Students:

“ Be yourself-
Get more involved in the things you love-
Do not be afraid to stand up for yourself-
Have school pride; respect where you came from. ”